Introductory Reading

(Joachim and Anne, the parents of the Virgin Mary) ...passed twenty years of their married life without issue. In those times and among the people of the Jews this was held to be the greatest misfortune and disgrace...

They continued in most fervent prayers from the bottom of their hearts...They made an express vow to the Lord, that if He should give them issue, they would consecrate It to his service in the temple of Jerusalem. This offer was made by an especial impulse of the Holy Ghost, who had ordained, that She who was to be the habitation of the Son of God, should, before coming into existence, be offered and, as it were, pledged by her parents to the same Lord. For if they had not obliged themselves by a special promise to offer Her to the temple before they possessed Her, they would not have been able to make the sacrifice on account of the vehement love, which her sweetness and grace engendered. Mystical City of God by Venerable Mary of Agreda, Volume I, Book I, Chapter XII, #s 172-173

Our Father...

1. The three years' time decreed by the Lord having been completed, Joachim and Anne set out from Nazareth...bringing with them the true living Ark of the covenant, the most holy Mary, borne on the arms of her mother in order to be deposited in the holy temple of Jerusalem. The beautiful Child, by her fervent and loving aspirations, hastened after the ointments of her Beloved, seeking in the temple Him, whom She bore in her heart. MC Volume I, Book II, Chapter I #421

Hail Mary...

2. They arrived at the holy temple, and the blessed Anne on entering took her Daughter and Mistress by the hand, accompanied and assisted by Saint Joachim. All three offered a devout and fervent prayer to the Lord, the parents offering to God their daughter, and the most holy Child, in profound humility, adoration and worship, offering up Herself. She alone perceived that the Most High received and accepted Her, and, amid divine splendor which filled the temple, She heard a voice saying to Her: "Come, my Beloved, my Spouse, come to my temple, where I wish to hear thy voice of praise and worship. MC #422

Hail Mary...

3. Fifteen stairs led up to the entrance...Mary...turned and kneeling down before Joachim and Anne, asked their blessing and kissed their hands, recommending herself to their prayers before God. The holy parents in tenderest tears gave Her their blessing; whereupon She ascended the fifteen stairs without any assistance. She hastened upward with incomparable fervor and joy, neither turning back, nor shedding tears, nor showing any childish regret at parting from her parents. To see Her, in so tender an age, so full of strange majesty and firmness of mind, excited the admiration of all those present. MC #423

Hail Mary...

4. In ascending the fifteen stairs the Child brought to fulfillment, that, which Jacob saw happening in sleep; for here too were angels ascending and descending: the ones accompanying, the others meeting their Queen as She hastened up; whereas at the top God was waiting in order to welcome Her as his Daughter and Spouse. She also felt by the effects of the overflowing love, that this truly was the house of God and the portal of heaven. MC #424

Hail Mary...

5. When the heavenly Child Mary had dismissed her parents and entered upon her life in the temple...She began to feel a supernal influence of great power and sweetness, spiritualizing Her and elevating Her in burning ecstasy, and immediately the Most High commanded the seraphim to assist in illumining and preparing her most holy soul. Instantly, She was filled with a divine light and force, which perfected and proportioned her faculties in accordance with the mysteries now to be manifested to Her. Thus prepared and accompanied by her holy angels and many others, in the midst of a refulgent host, the celestial Child was raised body and soul to the empyrean heaven, where She was received by the holy Trinity with the befitting benevolence and pleasure. She prostrated Herself in the presence of the most mighty and high Lord, as She was wont to do in all her visions, and adored Him in profound reverence and humility. MC #429-430

Hail Mary...

6. (S)ome of the seraphim closest to the Lord approached Her and by his command adorned and clothed Her in the following manner. First of all her senses were illumined with an effulgent light, which filled them with grace and beauty. Then they robed Her in a mantle or tunic of most exquisite splendor, and girded Her with a cincture of vary-colored and transparent stones, of flashing brilliancy, which adorned Her beyond human comprehension. They signified the immaculate purity and the various heroic virtues of her soul. They placed on Her also a necklace or collar of inestimable and entrancing beauty, which contained three large stones, symbolic of the three great virtues of faith, hope and charity; this they hung around her neck letting it fall to her breast as if indicating the seat of these precious virtues. MC #435

Hail Mary...

7. They also adorned her hands with seven rings of rare beauty whereby the Holy Ghost wished to proclaim that He had enriched Her with his holy gifts in a most eminent degree. In addition to all this the most holy Trinity crowned her head with an imperial diadem, made of inestimable material and set with most precious stones, constituting Her thereby as his Spouse and as the Empress of heaven. In testimony whereof the white and refulgent vestments were emblazoned with letters of figures of the finest and the most shining gold, proclaiming: Mary, Daughter of the eternal Father, Spouse of the Holy Ghost and Mother of the true Light. This last name or title the heavenly Mistress did not understand; but the angels understood it, who, lost in wonder and praise of the Author, were assisting at this new and strange ceremony. MC #435

Hail Mary...

8. Finally the attention of all the angelic spirits was drawn toward the Most High and a voice proceeded from the throne of the Blessed Trinity, which, addressing the most holy Mary, spoke to Her: "Thou shalt be our Spouse, our beloved and chosen One among all creatures for all eternity; the angels shall serve thee and all the nations shall call thee blessed." MC #435

Hail Mary...

9. The sovereign Child being thus attired in the court dress of the Divinity, then celebrated a more glorious and marvelous espousal than ever could enter the mind of the highest cherubim and seraphim. For the Most High accepted Her as his sole and only Spouse and conferred upon Her the highest dignity which can befall a creature; He deposited within Her his own Divinity in the person of the Word and with it all the treasures of grace befitting such eminence. MC #436

Hail Mary...

10. Meanwhile the most Humble among the humble was lost in the abyss of love and wonder which these benefits and favors caused in Her, and in the presence of the Lord She spoke:

"Most high King and incomprehensible God, who art Thou and who am I, that thy condescension should look upon me who am dust, unworthy of such mercy? In Thee, my Lord, as in a clear mirror seeing thy immutable being, I behold and understand without error my lowliness and vileness, I admire thy immensity and deprecate my nothingness. At the sight of Thee I am annihilated and lost in astonishment, that the infinite Majesty should stoop to so lowly a worm, who can merit only oblivion and contempt of all the creatures. O Lord, my only Good, how art Thou magnified and exalted in this deed! What marvel dost Thou cause through me in thy angelic spirits, who understand thy infinite bounty, magnificence and mercy in raising up from the dust her who in it is poor and placing her among the princes (Ps.112,7) ! MC #436

Hail Mary...

11. I accept Thee, O my King and my Lord, as my Spouse and I offer myself as thy slave. Let not my understanding attend to any other object, nor my memory hold any other image, nor my will seek other object or pleasure than Thee, my highest Good, my true and only Love. Let not my eyes look upon human creature, nor my faculties and senses attend upon anything beside Thee and whatever thy Majesty shall direct. Thou alone for thy spouse, my Beloved, and she for Thee only, who art the immutable and eternal Good." MC #436

Hail Mary...

12. The Most High received with ineffable pleasure this consent of the sovereign Princess to enter into the new espousal with her most holy soul. As upon his True Spouse and as Mistress of all creation, He now lavished upon Her all the treasures of his grace and power, instructing Her to ask for whatever She desired and assuring Her that nothing would be ever denied Her. MC #437

Hail Mary...

Glory be to GOD the Father!

Glory be to GOD the Son!

Glory be to GOD the Spirit!

Glory to the Three in One.

NOTES:

1) The Catholic Church has granted the Imprimatur to the writings of Venerable Mary of Agreda in Mystical City of God, which means that it contains no error in theology.

The Church teaches that private revelations may help a person to live their faith as long as those revelations lead that person to Christ. Private revelations are not necessary for salvation. They are not a part of the deposit of faith given in Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition and thus it is not necessary to believe in them. (See: Catholic Catechism #'s 65-67)

2) This story of the Presentation of the Infant Mary in the Temple, as related in Mystical City of God, by Venerable Mary of Agreda, Volume I, Book II, Chapters 1, 2 & 4, is the original inspiration of everything in the School of Prayer HCBVM. This icon of total self-donation to GOD - leaving all to live in GOD - lies at the very heart of the Life of the Divine Indwelling... every moment of every day.

3) The Crown Chaplet of the Presentation of Mary in the Temple may be prayed as a novena chaplet in preparation for the annual feast days of Saints Joachim and Anne on July 26th, and the Presentation of Mary on November 21st.
